MEMORANDUM-DECISION AND ORDER

I. Introduction

Plaintiff pro se Andre Kelley brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Kelley alleges that his constitutional rights were violated when the defendants failed to provide him with adequate medical care and access to the courts. Although Kelley has objected to the Report-Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Gustave J. DiBianco's Report-Recommendation, those objections are nothing more than a reiteration of the allegations in his complaint and add nothing new for this court to consider. Upon careful consideration of the objections, the relevant parts of the record, and the applicable law, and having conducted a de novo review, the court adopts the Report-Recommendation in its entirety.

II. Procedural History

Kelley commenced this action on December 17, 2001. Dkt. No. 1. On January 28, 2004, the defendants moved for summary judgment. Dkt. No. 49. On October 8, Judge DiBianco issued a Report-Recommendation which recommended granting the defendants' motion and dismissing Kelley's complaint in its entirety. Dkt. No. 55. Kelley objected. Dkt. No. 56.

III. Discussion<sup>2</sup>

A. Standard of Review

The Court reviews the objected-to findings and recommendations in a magistrate judge's report-recommendation de novo, and will accept the report's uncontested parts unless they are "clearly erroneous." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A),(C); Thomas E. Hoar, Inc. v. Sara Lee Corp., 900 F.2d 522, 525 (2d Cir. 1990). The court adopts the summary judgment standard as it is correctly articulated in Judge DiBianco's Report-Recommendation. Dkt. No. 55.

B. Report-Recommendation

For the reasons stated in Judge DiBianco's well-articulated and thorough Report-Recommendation, this court adopts it in its entirety. The Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED and the Plaintiff's entire Complaint is DISMISSED with respect to each Defendant.
